Services Provided & FY01 Highlights

The Circuit Clerk is responsible for recording the judgements, rules, orders and other proceedings of the Circuit Court En Banc. The Circuit Clerk also handles and accounts for the funds generated from Circuit Court fees. As employees of this office are state employees, the budget for personal services contains only those salary costs of the position of Circuit Clerk. In FY01, the Circuit Clerk's office is seeking to purchase a file locator system which will permit the Clerk's office to track the location of civil and juvenile case files.

The Circuit Court Administrator's Office is responsible for the overall administration of the Circuit Court in accordance with State and local court rules. Duties include budget preparation, personnel management for approximately 200 employees, data processing, pretrial release and the administration of the Juvenile Division. In FY01, the Court Administrator's office will be adding a computer hardware specialist position as well additional secretarial positions. In FY00, the budget for fixed and miscellaneous charges included $500,000 toward the completion of the Civil Courts building improvement project. With completion of the project pending, this amount is eliminated in FY01.

Services Provided & FY01 Highlights

The Circuit Attorney's Office is responsible for the prosecution of all felony and misdemeanor crimes committed in the City of St. Louis, plus the enforcement of child support obligations on behalf of dependent children living within the City. In FY00, the Circuit Attorney's office began implementation of a new prosecutor case management system. With computerization of the office nearing completion, the need for new computers will be minimized and the reliance on services such as REJIS will likewise be reduced.

Division Budget

Services Provided & FY01 Highlights

The Municipal Division of the St. Louis Circuit Court (City Courts) is structured into four court divisions that hear St. Louis City violations filed by the City Counselor's Office. In FY01, City Courts will be pursuing the implementation of a "community court" that will focus on addressing the causes of defendants' behavior. The new court will deal with two daily confined dockets, the Neighborhood Quality of Life Crime Docket as well as the Neighborhood Intervention and Treatment Program. The Police Department is in the process of locating a substation in the court building to facilitate the prompt court appearance of those suspected of ordinance violations. City Courts will make use of provisional judges rather than a fifth full-time judge to cover the increased judicial duties of the new court.

The City Marshal provides courtroom security for the four courtrooms of the City Courts as well as the entrances and other areas of City Courts. The City Marshal is also responsible for City Court prisoners seen over video-link, those brought over from the Sheriff's office and individual arrests out of court. The City Marshal also provides security for other city buildings including City Hall, Soldiers' Memorial, 634 N. Grand and 1300 Convention Plaza. Beginning in December 1999, the City Marshal's office joined with Park Rangers to receive in-service training from the Eastern Missouri Law Enforcement Training Academy. The majority of Deputy City Marshals have now received approximately 40 to 50 hours of training.

Services Provided & FY01 Highlights

The purpose of the Juvenile Division is to facilitate the care, protection and discipline of children who come under the jurisdiction of the Juvenile Court. The Juvenile Court has jurisdiction of delinquency and status offense matters up to the seventeenth birthday, and abuse and neglect matters up to the eighteenth birthday. Contained within the Juvenile Division budget is the cost of institutional care for delinquent juveniles. The FY01 budget allows for the placement of an average of 17 juveniles per day at $75 per day and 4 juveniles in placement at a rate of $106 per day. Those juveniles placed at the higher rate usually require a secure facility and very close supervision. Recent grant funds had previously provided for some placements. The FY01 budget includes an increase of two grant funded positions. As a state office these grant funds are not subject to City appropriation.
